AFORESAID DID THEN AND THERE COMMIT THE FOLLOWING OFFENSE(S):			NARRATIVE: On November 23, 2025, at approximately 19:52 I was dispatched to a single vehicle injury crash on I-24 at mile marker 74. When I arrived on scene, I observed a vehicle stuck in between the cable barrier on the left shoulder. As I approached the vehicle, I noticed a strong odor of alcohol emitting from inside. I observed two empty 24oz cans of Bud Light laying on the rear floorboard. To the left of the vehicle, on the ground, there were four more empty 24 oz cans of Bud Light. As I approached the driver, later identified as Christopher Sweeton, I noticed an odor of alcohol emitting from his person. His eyes were dilated and watery. Mr. Sweeton was talkative and slurring his words. I asked Mr. Sweeton stated he had one beer. I asked Mr. Sweeton to come to the front of my patrol vehicle to do SFSTs. Mr. Sweeton quickly refused SFSTs and told me to skip it and just take him. Mr. Sweeton was swaying and stumbling as I walked him to my vehicle. His bond condition court date is 12/3/2025.

Traffic citation in lieu of arrest.

As used in this section, “traffic citation” means a written citation or an electronic citation prepared by a law enforcement officer on paper or on an electronic data device with the intent the citation shall be filed, electronically or otherwise, with a court having jurisdiction over the alleged offense.

40-7-118

Use of citations in lieu of continued custody of an arrested person.

(a) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Citation" means an order prepared as a written or electronic citation and issued by a peace officer on paper or on an electronic data device requiring a person accused of violating the law to appear in a designated court or government office at a specified date and time. The signature of the person to whom the order is issued is required, and the order must be filed, electronically or otherwise, with a court having jurisdiction over the alleged offense;

(2) "Magistrate" means any state judicial officer, including the judge of a municipal court, having original trial jurisdiction over misdemeanors or felonies; and

40-1-106. OFFICIALS DEFINED AS MAGISTRATES.

The judges of the supreme, appellate, chancery, circuit, general sessions and juvenile courts throughout the state, judicial commissioners and county mayors in those officers' respective counties, and the presiding officer of any municipal or city court within the limit of their respective corporations, are magistrates within the meaning of this title. The judges of chancery and circuit courts have statewide jurisdiction to issue search warrants pursuant to chapter 6, part 1 of this title in any district. All other magistrates have statewide jurisdiction to issue search warrants pursuant to chapter 6, part 1 of this title in any district, county, or jurisdiction, if at least one (1) element of the alleged crime on which the search warrant is based is committed within the jurisdiction of the magistrate.
